Telephone Triage Reference List

The following is a list of telephone triage specific articles from 1998 -2002. This wide collection of references may be utilized for research purposes.

- Author (1997). Telehealth Center gets foundation support. Telemed Virtual Real 1997 Sep;2(9):100

• Author (1999). Quality of telephone triage nursing comes under fire. Healthc Demand Dis Manag 1999 May;5(5):70-4, 65

• Author (1999). Triage program provides direct access to ER care, but without the high cost. Healthc Demand Dis Manag 1999 Jun;5(6):91-3

• Grant, D. (1997). MDs must help eliminate 911 calls after "expected" home deaths, medical examiner advises. CMAJ 1997 Apr 1;156(7):1035-7
• Kim, P., Eng, T.R., et al. (1999). Published criteria for evaluating health related web sites:
review. BMJ 1999 Mar 6;318(7184):647-9

10;74(3):57-8, 60, 63-6

- Mohan, C.G., Baird, T.M., et al. (1999). Weekly telephone contact does not enhance the Books

- Severgnini, P., Mare, C., et al. (2000). Observing an SSU Em 118 dispatch center for continuous quality improvement. The case of SSUEm 118 Varese. Minerva Anestesiologica 2000 Sep;66(9):635-41

• Sharp, N. (1997), Medicare reimbursement: for NPs, CNSs, MDs, and Telehealth. Nurse Pract 1997 Aug;22(8):143-4, 146

• Stremski, E.S. (1999). Accidental pediatric ingestion, hospital charges and failure to utilize a poison control center. WMJ 1999 Nov;98(7):29-33

• Sutherland, L., Igras, E., et al. (2000). A laboratory for testing the interoperability of telehealth

- Telehealth in a rural school-based health center. J Sch Nurs 2000 Apr;16(2):38-41
- Telephone counseling as adjuvant treatment for nicotine replacement therapy in a "real-world" setting.
- Telephone crisis intervention skills: a simulated caller paradigm. Crisis 2000;21(2):90-4
- The influence of a nurse practitioner on out of hours work intensity for surgical house officers.
- Tieman, J. (2000). Monitoring a good opportunity. Telemedicine grows as method to reach poorly served regions. Mod Healthc 2000 Oct 16;30(43):75-8, 80, 1 20;109(5655):24-5